Reference is made to your letter dated July 18, 1968, entitled "Garrison and the Kennedy Assassination: William Clarence Wood, Jr., aka William Buxley," your reference [S] wherein you set forth information concerning Wood and requested any later information regarding Wood which might be in possession of this Bureau.

The files of this Bureau disclose that the "Berkeley Barb," a newspaper published by the Underground Press Syndicate, in its issue of December 29, 1967-January 4, 1968, contained an article entitled "Mafia Plot to Kill Garrison Verified." The article identifies Bill Buxley as an investigator for Garrison, who verified the plot.

This Bureau's files also disclose that one James Thomas Mays, who was identified as a missing witness in a murder trial in Miami, Florida, during March, 1968, involving Anthony Experti, had been interviewed by a news reporter for the "Miami News" and William Buxley, an investigator working for James C. Garrison, the New Orleans District Attorney conducting the probe into the death of President Kennedy. In this connection the "Miami News" for March 5, 1968, indicated that Mays claimed he had been offered $25,000 to kill President Kennedy but that he had refused the offer.

Director
Central Intelligence Agency

NOTE:

William Clarence Wood, Jr., is the individual referred to in "The New York Times" article in its issue of 7/12/68 regarding Garrison's claim that his office had been exchanging information with the intelligence agency of a foreign country which had successfully "penetrated the assassination operation" against President Kennedy. CIA has furnished information concerning Wood, aka Doolby, and requested any later information we might have concerning him.

Incoming from CIA is classified "Secret" as it contains information [REDACTED]
This reply contains no classified information and need not be classified.
